DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of Wallsend, the Forum Shopping Centre is a well-established retail destination offering a diverse mix of national brands and independent retailers. With a strong local customer base and excellent transport links, the centre provides a convenient and vibrant shopping experience for the community.

The centre features a broad range of units including fashion/accessories, food, health & beauty, and everyday essentials. Key tenants include high street favourites alongside local businesses that bring character and variety to the retail mix. The Forum also benefits from generous parking facilities and regular footfall from nearby residential areas and public services.

Positioned prominently within Wallsend town centre, the Forum Shopping Centre plays a vital role in the local economy and continues to attract shoppers with its accessible layout, welcoming atmosphere, and evolving tenant line-up. Whether visiting for a quick errand or a leisurely browse, the Forum offers something for everyone.

LOCATION

Wallsend is a historic town located approximately 3 miles east of Newcastle upon Tyne, offering excellent connectivity across the region. The Forum Shopping Centre sits at the heart of Wallsend town centre, with entrances on High Street West, Station Road, Elton Street, and Segedunum Way, making it easily accessible by foot, car, and public transport.

The centre benefits from strong transport links, with Wallsend Metro Station and Bus Interchange just a short walk away. Regular bus services - including routes 1, 11, and 42 connect the centre to Newcastle city centre and surrounding coastal areas. For drivers, The Forum offers free parking for 2 hours with additional surface level parking available in the car park adjacent to Aldi, Burger King & the Hadrian Medical Centre.

The town continues to benefit from regeneration and investment, reinforcing its role as a key retail and community hub in North Tyneside.
